▪ Tour of NAPAC Museum

The Mayor and Board members present toured the building. The Mayor announced that they did look at the goals of NAPAC two weeks ago. They have started the process of receiving bids for painting the NAPAC building. Another goal discussed is a new movie experience, a new film experience, we have already reached out to John Norris, who is a movie producer. He has pledged his help to assist NAPAC. The Mayor met with our Community Liaison, Jessica Hawkins and Kathleen Bond to help with interpretive signage throughout our community at historic sites, which will begin at NAPAC and provide an interactive experience going out into neighborhoods for a self-guided tour. John Norris and Tate Tatum have pledge to help with funding along with others they know to fund this project.

DAN M. GIBSON, MAYOR
